

EMPOWERING CSOs IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19 PANDEMIC: LESSONS FOR THE FUTURE.

Date: 29 August 2021 Jeddah Time: 1:00 PM-02:30 PM Venue: Virtual Event

The health and socio-economic impact of COVID-19 have been severe and prolonged, particularly on vulnerable groups that are hardest hit by the pandemic especially in health, educational and economic systems. Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) play a critical role in engaging citizens as a foundation for sustainable innovation to contain and mitigate the effects of the pandemic. They contribute to the immediate and medium-term efforts of the member countries (MCs) to prevent, contain and respond to negative impacts of COVID-19.

KEY ISSUES TO BE ADDRESSED

- A) Define the role of the CSOs, Governments, donors and partners to be played by each actor and how it should be coordinated to ensure successful results on the ground.
- B) To share the main challenges faced by CSOs in implementing projects for the beneficiaries and lessons learnt to help other CSOs improve their performance and help MDBs improve their interactions with CSOs.
- C) Identify opportunities for stakeholders in post COVID-19 era, to increase possibility of cooperation.
- D) Share and Identify the innovative resource mobilization mechanisms available in the market and tested successfully by partners.
- E) How to improve the efficiency of the capacity development programs provided by different actors for the sustainability of the CSOs.
